

#

personal data

Alan Kostrenčić, architect born on February 7th, 1968 in Zagreb

formal education

- graduated from High School for Mathematics and Informatics (MIOC) in Zagreb in 1986
- in 1987 enrolls at Faculty of Architecture, University of Zagreb
- in 1994 graduates from Faculty of Architecture in Zagreb – mentor Prof. Fabijanić

professional career

- after Diploma he worked for several architectural offices (Njirić + Njirić, AP-92)
- in 1997, together with Aleksandra Krebel he founded office “Kostrenčić I Krebel-arhitekti”

selected work & projects

- as a graduate student on the Faculty, he got involved with various architectural competitions, out of which the most important are:
 - competition work for the residential building in Zagreb, Petrinjska 9
 - international competition work for the Museum of 20th century – International glass competition (cooperation with Aleksandra Krebel)

awards

- in 1994 Prize on a Zagreb Salon in a category of Proposal (cooperation with Aleksandra Krebel)
- regular participation on the Zagreb Salon exhibitions

exhibitions & lectures

- in 1995 participation on a seminar Frames of the Metropolis, organized by the City Office for Planning (of Zagreb) and the Berlage Institute, Netherlands
- guest lecturer with Croatian Chamber of Trade on a Programme of professional education of real-estates agents – subject: architecture

publications & published work

- engaged in theoretical work relating architecture:
 - written work and articles in professional publications ČIP, Oris and AB (Slovenia)
- member of the Redaction for publication ČIP in 2000 and 2001